

Mr. Kihl was remembered by those who had the pleasure of hearing him in a plan recital when conducting examination for the Oregon Conservators here two years ago, and Vaughan hoped that it would again be his privilege to range for the rare privilege of hearing this noted artist in a recital while in town on Friday, July 10.

ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK

A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE
THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

DELIVERER OF PALESTINE DIES SUDDENLY

Coming, as it did, shortly after the deaths of King George, Earl Jellicoe, and Earl Beatty, the sudden passing of Viscount Allenby was a great shock to the people throughout the British Empire. One of the most colorful military leaders in British history, it fell to Allenby's proud lot to liberate Palestine from the rule of the Turk. Above are pictures of Allenby, taken at crucial periods in his life. At the left he is shown when he played a prominent part in the early days of the World War; centre, Allenby riding triumphantly through Jerusalem to the Joppa Gate a few days after his troops had banished the Turkish forces. Top, right: Allenby, as British High Commissioner in Egypt, arriving at the Chamber of Deputies in Cairo at the inauguration of the Egyptian Parliament. Bottom, left: Reviewing Jewish ex-service men on the Royal Guards parade in 1931, and bottom, right, one of the most familiar pictures of Allenby, taken a few years ago.

KING EDWARD VISITS SITE OF MEMORIAL TO HIS FATHER

His Majesty King Edward paid a visit to the old brewery site below the Castle at Windsor, where it is proposed to erect a local memorial to King George V. The memorial will take the form of a "Garden of Remembrance," with a bronze bust of the late King in the centre. This photograph shows His Majesty the King discussing details of the plan with the Dean of Windsor, Lake Wakefield and other officials.

Frances, Frank, Felix and Ferdinand with nurse

The four famous "F's" of Little Ferry, N.J., Frances, Frank, Felix and Ferdinand Kasper, shown with their nurse, quadruplicate born to Mrs. Elizabeth Kasper, were reared on a diet of whiskey and sugared water following the star's arrival. Mrs. Elizabeth Kasper, wife of a $20-a-week railway worker, had already given birth to two children, one of whom, Ellen, is shown kissing her mother, below.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kasper and daughter Ellen

GOVERNOR CROWNS FETE QUEEN

Picturesque ceremonies at which Governor Fitzgerald of Michigan presided marked the coronation of lovely Virginia Mae Pound, queen of the Blossom Festival at St. Joseph. Gloria Harrah was the Queen's flower girl.

CANADIAN STUDENT AT OXFORD FOUND DEAD

The body of T. Patterson Moss, 21-year-old son of Mrs. John H. Moss, Toronto, Ontario, was found burned in the remains of a haystack on a farm near Stathampton, Oxfordshire. He was an undergraduate of Oxford University. Mrs. Moss is at present in England. Sir Bernard Spilsbury, distinguished pathologist for the Home Office, was called in to investigate the cause of death.

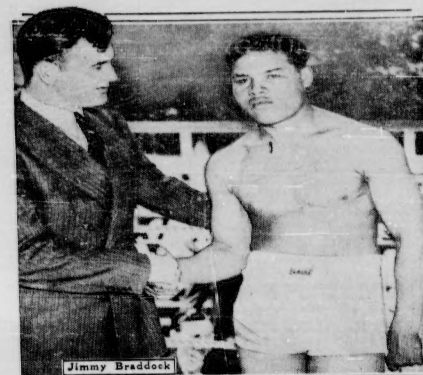

—Portrait by Violet Keene, Eaton's College Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Franchot Tone

FAMOUS FILM FAMILY AT HOME

The title once enjoyed by Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, who were recognized as "the first family of Hollywood," appears slated to become attached to Mr. and Mrs. Franchot Tone, whom Hollywood points out as one of its happiest couples since Joan Crawford, the former wife of Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Tone were married recently.

CHAMP CONGRATULATES CONTENDER

One of those on hand at Lakewood, N.J., to wish Joe Louis, heavy-weight contender, congratulations on his 22nd birthday was Jimmy Braddock, left, world champion, whose next meeting with Louis will probably be in the ring to defend his title. Louis is now in training at Lakewood for his June bout with Max Baer, former champion. When Braddock and Louis met, the latter predicted that he would be champion before another natal day rolled around, but Braddock smiled grimly and remarked, "Oh—is that so?"

WHEN AIRSHIP EXPERTS GET TOGETHER

Before the giant new German Zeppelin, the "von Hindenburg," took off from Lakehurst, N.J., on its return flight to Germany, Dr. Hugo Eckener, centre, head of the Zeppelin Company, was the recipient of formal congratulations from the United States government, conveyed by a delegation which included Admiral W. H. Standley, left, chief of naval operations, and Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, right, of the Lakehurst naval station.

BEET WORKERS BACK TO WORK

LETTERBRIDGE, May 28.—Strike of 1,100 beet workers in southern Alberta, which started more than a week ago, was settled today. The workers have accepted the Alberta Beet Growers Association terms and were returning to the field. The men are signing individual contracts, accepting $20 an acre, an increase of one dollar an acre over last year. New contracts have a clause barring the men from affiliating with any union or movement of a Communist nature.

THE WEDDING OF GLOUCESTER'S SISTER-IN-LAW

The wedding of Lady Angela Scott, youngest daughter of the late Duke of Buccleuch and sister of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, and Lieut.-Commander Peter Dawsey, R.N., took place at St. Margaret's, Westminster, and was attended by many notabilities. The bride and bridesmaid, who sailed for New Zealand on their honeymoon, are seen leaving the church after the ceremony.

